A. Scott Brenneke

Status - 1 acting client, may get a second one. Has $7700 and enough to fund both for the physical year (June 30th, 2022) have not had new applications in about a year. To get in the program, has been diagnosed with AIDs, submits financials, these are reviewed and then if approved applicant gets funding for a year

Scott has spoken to Larry Mastropiero about this status.

Scott says this program is most likely getting transferred to the HOPES foundation. After 25 years this program has served its purpose. Silver Dollar Court has raised over $1.1 million that is over 1/3rd of the funds.

Scott recommends Hopes Springs Housing program – just starting up. They give training in cooking, and other life skills to get back to the workforce. Located on 4th street. This is a first step transitional program. Funding is about $50,000 from the city and the rest is donations, yearly cost is about $250,000 a year.
